

Important Tax Dates for 2017

IRS official tax dates you need to stay on top of your taxes.

2017 Federal Legal Holidays

- January 2 – New Year's Day (observed)
- January 16 – Martin Luther King Jr.'s Birthday
- January 20 – Inauguration Day
- February 20 – Washington's Birthday
- April 17 – District of Columbia Emancipation Day (observed)
- May 29 – Memorial Day
- July 4 – Independence Day
- September 4 – Labor Day
- October 9 – Columbus Day
- November 10 – Veterans' Day (observed)
- November 23 – Thanksgiving Day
- December 25 – Christmas Day

2017 E-File Dates

- January 23 – First day to e-file
- January 23 – First IRS acknowledgements of e-filed returns
- April 18 – Last day to e-file timely returns
- April 18 – Last day to e-file timely extension requests
- April 25 – Last day to retransmit rejected timely filed returns and extensions
- June 15 – Last day to e-file timely extension request for overseas taxpayers
- October 16 – Last day to e-file returns that received 6-month extension
- October 23 – Last day to retransmit rejected late or extension returns

Important 2017 Tax Dates

- January 10 – Report tips of $20 or more to employer
- January 17 – Make last 2016 estimated tax payment
- February 10 – Report tips of $20 or more to employer
- March 10 – Report tips of $20 or more to employer
- April 10 – Report tips of $20 or more to employer
- April 18 – Due date to file calendar year 2016 tax returns or request an automatic 6-month extension of time to file. Pay any tax that is due, even if you file a 6-month extension of time to file.
- April 18 – First 2017 estimated tax payment due

- May 10 – Report tips of $20 or more to employer
- June 12 – Report tips of $20 or more to employer
- June 15 – Second 2017 estimated tax payment due
- July 10 – Report tips of $20 or more to employer
- August 10 – Report tips of $20 or more to employer
- September 11 – Report tips of $20 or more to employer
- September 15 – Third 2017 estimated tax payment due
- October 10 – Report tips of $20 or more to employer
- October 16 – Final due date to file calendar year 2016 tax returns for taxpayers who received a 6-month extension
- November 13 – Report tips of $20 or more to employer
- December 11 – Report tips of $20 or more to employer